

This is clearly an attempt by a right wing conglomerate to influence voters by airing distorted and patently right wing ideology. These air waves are owned by the public and Sinclair needs to remember it. We the People will take back the airwaves if there continues to be conservative doctrine promulgated without equal time devoted to liberal views. So where is this liberal media?